Dear all,

Thank you for your response and the information provided. We will proceed to identify the publications that are under the Creative Commons License (BY-NC-SA) and make them available in our digital library. In the item record, we will reproduce the same license included in the publication. If we come across any material that does not have a CC License, we will contact you again to obtain the proper authorization. If you have any further instructions regarding this matter, please let us know.

Thank you once again for your cooperation. We remain at your disposal.

Best regards,

Dear all,

Many thanks for your email and for your interest in International IDEA's publications.

Most of International IDEA's publications are published under a Creative Commons Licence (BY-NC-SA) which means that you are allowed to use the Work as long as it's attributed to us, for non-commercial purposes and shared under the same licence. From what I see below, you will fulfil these requirements.

There are a few reports however that require permission. We would therefore kindly ask that you be more specific regarding which publications you are interested in and if that also includes website articles.

Best regards,
Lisa

Dear all,

The Digital Library of Electoral Justice (Brazil) is an institutional tool that has among its purposes collecting, storing, preserving and disseminating digital documents on contents related to elections and electoral and party matters, with the priority of respect of the copyright legislation, thus becoming a large specialized open access repository in these subjects.

We identified on the portal <https://www.idea.int/publications> material of great interest for dissemination in that digital library. Therefore, we would like to consult this Institution about the possibility of authorizing the dissemination of all articles, books and related materials in our library.

Please, be advised that:

- 1) The source will be cited;
- 2) The disclosure will not be for commercial purposes;
- 3) The articles will not be altered by the Digital Library of Electoral Justice.

The Digital Library of Electoral Justice is available at <http://bibliotecadigital.tse.jus.br/xmlui/>.

If you agree to the disclosure, we kindly ask you to fill out the attached authorization form. The fill of the term is essential, because from the answers related to the inquiries of the form, a license will be established that will be expressed in the records of the items in the digital library and will guide users about the possibility of using the publication. More information about the creative commons license can be found at <https://br.creativecommons.org/licencas/> and <https://creativecommons.org/choose/?lang=pt>.

We put ourselves at your disposal for further information and reiterate the importance of the material for the discussion of issues about the Electoral Justice.

Best regards,
