

On Democracy

Why Good Intentions Fail

ANTONIO NERI

First published in 2026.

Copyright © 2026 Antonio Neri

ISBN 9798242479302

A CIP catalogue record for this book can be obtained from the British Library.

The right of Antonio Neri to be identified as the author of this work has been asserted by him in accordance with the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act, 1988.

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording or otherwise, without the prior written permission of the author.

Published independently by the author.

For comments or correspondence: info@usergov.net

CONTENTS

Preface	xi
Chapter 1	1
The honesty trap	1
When judgment loses its footing	3
The honesty trap	4
Chapter 2	5
From accountability to substitution	5
From judgement to substitution	6
A working example: Athens, 415 BC	7
Narrative and loyalty	8
A stable but fragile equilibrium	9
Chapter 3	13
The limits of elections	13
Why evaluation fails at the ballot box	14
Episodic accountability	16
What elections cannot do	17
Chapter 4	19
When memory disappears	19
Repetition without accumulation	20
Authority without record	21
Accumulation without correction	22
Chapter 5	23
When withdrawal becomes rational	23
The logic of alienation	24
A quiet equilibrium	25
The cost of withdrawal	26

Chapter 6	27
What accountability requires	27
Memory, measurement, and continuity	28
Accountability as a system property	29
Chapter 7	31
Why transparency is not enough	31
Transparency without accountability	33
Chapter 8	35
What can be measured	35
The limits of quantification	36
Patterns, not scores	37
Measurement as constraint	37
What measurement cannot do	38
Chapter 9	39
Accountability without control	39
Distributed judgment	40
Constraint as a function of accountability	41
The misplaced search for enforcement	42
Chapter 10	43
Designing for memory	43
Memory as continuity, not as archival file	43
From episodes to continuity	44
Memory as design constraint	46
Chapter 11	47
Comparison without collapse	47
Why comparison fails	47
Comparison as pattern recognition	48
Avoiding collapse	49

Chapter 12	51
Consequence without punishment	51
The limits of punitive response	51
Consequence as constraint	53
Gradualism and learning	54
When consequence disappears	54
Consequence as a design requirement	55
Chapter 13	57
When the system learns	57
Friction as a condition for learning	57
Learning without consensus	58
From correction to selection	59
When learning fails	60
Chapter 14	61
When accountability persists	61
A different temporal logic	61
From signal to structure	62
Stability without stagnation	63
The shape of a different system	64
Chapter 15	65
Where accountability has appeared	65
When power could not forget	65
Accountability without elections	66
Modern glimpses	67
Why these conditions fade	67
Lessons without templates	68
Chapter 16	69
Why scale breaks accountability	69
Distance and dilution	69

Complexity and abstraction	70
Delegation without memory	71
Stability through substitution	73
The cost of scale	73
Chapter 17	75
Designing for scale and judgment	75
What scale demands	75
Judgment without centralisation	76
Reducing cognitive load without erasing meaning	77
Designing for endurance	77
The shape of what works	78
Chapter 18	79
When accountability is simulated	79
The performance of oversight	79
Metrics without judgment	80
Change without memory	81
Scandal as a substitute	82
Why simulation persists	82
The danger of convincing imitations	83
Chapter 19	85
Minimum terms of accountability	85
What must exist	85
What is not required	86
A test, not a blueprint	87
Why minimum matters	87
The irreducible core	88
Chapter 20	89
What citizens can reasonably expect	89
What citizens cannot be asked to do	89
What citizens can reasonably expect	90

A more realistic civic role	91
Responsibility without burden	92
The quiet standard	92

Chapter 21 95

What comes after understanding 95

A different kind of agency	96
Living with imperfect systems	97
The work that remains	97
An ending without closure	98

Postscript 99

On using this framework 99