

Mats Ekström · Julie Firmstone
Editors

The Mediated Politics of Europe

A Comparative Study of Discourse

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

Part I Introduction

- | | | |
|----------|--|----------|
| 1 | Introduction: A Discourse Analytical Approach to Researching Mediated Political Communication | 3 |
| | Mats Ekström and Julie Firmstone | |

Part II Context

- | | | |
|----------|---|-----------|
| 2 | A Tale of Two Narratives | 39 |
| | Stephen Coleman | |
| 3 | Mediated Constructions of Crisis | 59 |
| | Marianna Patrona and Joanna Thornborrow | |

Part III Journalistic Practices

- | | | |
|----------|--|-----------|
| 4 | Genre and Cultural Style in TV News Coverage of the European Elections 2014 | 91 |
| | Joanna Thornborrow and Louann Haarman | |

- 5 Political Interviews: Pushing the Boundaries of ‘Neutrality’ 123
Mats Ekström and Andrew Tolson
- 6 Different Views of Europe in TV News Reports 151
Andrew Tolson and Joanna Thornborrow

Part IV Citizens

- 7 Reporting the ‘Public’—Discourses of Interpretation,
Evaluation and Prediction 175
Julie Firmstone and John Corner
- 8 Citizens Talking Politics in the News: Opinions, Attitudes and (Dis)Engagement 201
Mats Ekström and Andrew Tolson
- 9 On the Broadcast Spectrum of Citizen Participation:
Citizen Talk in the Audience Discussion Genre 229
Marianna Patrona

Part V Politicians

- 10 The Performances of Mainstream Politicians:
Politics as Usual? 259
Stephen Coleman and Julie Firmstone
- 11 The Performances of Right-Wing Populism: Populist
Discourse, Embodied Styles and Forms of News
Reporting 289
Mats Ekström and Andrew Morton

Part VI Conclusion

12 Conclusion: Tensions and Disruptions in Mediated Politics	319
Mats Ekström and Julie Firmstone
Index	339