

THE
ELECTORAL LAWS OF BELGIUM
PROPOSED
AS THE BASIS
OF
PARLIAMENTARY REFORM
IN ENGLAND.

TRANSLATED, WITH THE COMMENTARY OF

M. J. B. BIVORT,

SECRETARY OF THE CABINET OF THE BELGIAN MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR,

BY

PHILIP EDWARD BARNES, ESQ.,

B.A., F.L.S.

LONDON :
LONGMAN, BROWN, GREEN, & LONGMANS,
FATERNOSTER-ROW.

1849.

CONTENTS.

	Page
Introductory Remarks	1
The titles of the Belgian Constitution which relate particularly to the Chambers of the Representatives, and the Senate.	59
TITLE III. "Of the Powers:" which declares generally the Constitution of the Powers; from whom derived, by whom and how exercised, &c.	63
Chapter I., treats jointly of the Chamber of Representatives, and of the Senate	64
Section I. Of the Chamber of Representatives	67
Section II. Of the Senate	68
TITLE VII. "Of the Revision of the Constitution," declares that every proposed change in the Constitution must be first submitted to the people	70
The Electoral Laws of Belgium	73
TITLE I. "Of the Electors," declares who may and who may not be an Elector, and the qualifications required of the Elector	75

	Page
TITLE II. "Of the Electoral Lists," declares by whom, and in what manner the Register of the Electors is to be made - - - - -	84
TITLE III. "Of the Electoral Colleges," declares where, and in what manner the Electors shall assemble for the purpose of electing; in what manner the Elections shall be made, and in what manner the result shall be made known - - - - -	95
TITLE IV. "Of the Eligibles," declares who shall be capable of being elected deputies to the Chamber of Representatives and to the Chamber of the Senate	108
TITLE V. "General Dispositions," respecting the manner of filling up vacancies in the Chambers, and of determining the order of the deputies going out, &c. and the repartition of the country into Electoral districts - - - - -	113
Model of the Electoral Lists - - - - -	122
Model of the letter of Convocation of Electors and of its receipt - - - - -	124
Model of the Procès-verbal of the Elections or of the record of the proceedings thereat - - - - -	126
Model of the List of Eligibles to the Senate - - - - -	132