CHRISTIAN VOTING

HOW TO WIN FRIENDS AND INFLUENCE ELECTIONS

Rev. Joshua Daniel Pratt, MDiv, overcame a troubled upbringing marked by anger, violence, and substance abuse due to the absence of a father figure and godly leadership. His rebellious lifestyle led to a DUI arrest in 1996, during which he resisted arrest and assaulted police officers, resulting in jail time. Although exposed to Christianity, it was during his incarceration that he truly committed to his faith journey. His transformation was not immediate but a process of growth, discipline, and grace.

Now an ordained minister, Joshua holds a Political Science degree from Arizona State University and three master's degrees from Liberty Baptist Theological Seminary. He has served as a pastor in Virginia and Arizona, with a passion for evangelism, discipleship, politics, and conservative activism. He has worked on over 25 Republican campaigns across multiple states.

Currently, Rev. Pratt serves as the Pastor of Discipleship and Education at All Nations Community Church in Lynchburg, VA and as Senior Elder of Action Mission, a faith-based nonprofit dedicated to restoring America's greatness through biblical principles and civic engagement. Its mission includes protecting individual and parental rights, reducing government overreach, and promoting economic freedom.

Inspired by Dr. Jerry Falwell's leadership philosophy, Joshua's life exemplifies that anyone, through Christ, can overcome adversity and become a leader for the Kingdom of God.
